TikTok is introducing a new 'family safety mode' designed to give parents more control over their child's use of the app. The video-sharing platform will let parents link their TikTok accounts to their child's - and turn certain features on or off remotely (such as restricted mode and screen time controls). These safety features have already been on TikTok for some time, but had to be set manually and locked behind a password.